rian Leader for Peace Also Progressing.

PEKIN, June 17 (Associated Press).—Dispatches from Canton describe the collapse of the Southern Government as complete, following the fighting and occupation yesterday of the city by the troops of Gen. Chen Chiung-min. Dr. Sun Yat-sen's military forces were crushed and the former Canton President is himself a fugitive.

Gen. Chen, who formerly was civil Governor of Kwangtung Province, announced to-day that the South China Government has been terminated and that henceforth Canton would unite with the North in recognizing the old Republican Parliament.

A Canton telegram to the Eastern News Agency reported that the coup d'etat that resulted in the fall of the Southern capital was carried out at 3 o'clock yesterday morning by Commander Yehuch, acting under orders of Gen. Chen.

The two greatest obstacles to the re-union of China, namely Dr. Sun Yat-sen and Gen. Chang Tso-lin, apparently are now eliminated, and the prospect for bringing the whole republic under one government seems brighter to-day than at any time since the establishment of the South China regime at Canton in 1918.

Gen. Chen Chiung-min is understood to favor the plan of provisional President Li Yuan-hung and Gen. Wu Peifu for assembling a constitutional all-China Parliament here. Chen, one of the most powerful of the southern military men, joined thirteen provincial Military Governors late last month in endorsing Gen. Wu's call for the assembling of the Parliament. Only a few days ago Dr. Sun offered him the command of all the southern armies for his support against the Peking Government, but the offer was rejected.

Sun's Army in Danger.

As the result of Chen's coup at Canton, Dr. Sun's principal army is in a precarious position. These forces are facing 12,000 of Wu's troops at Nanchang in Kiangsi province, while the hostile army of Gen. Chen occupies their base at Canton.

Gen. Chang Tso-lin, the Manchurian leader, while not wholly eliminated, is in a conciliatory mood as a result of his recent defeat by Wu's Chihli army on the Chihli-Manchurian front. The opposing commanders on that front are reported to have boarded a British warship at Chinwangtao to arrange an armistice.

The situation in Manchuria has been further complicated, apparently by the proclamation through an assembly of self-government for each of the three Manchurian provinces. Dispatches said the assembly had appointed Chang Tso-lin commander-in-chief. It was represented as the purpose of the assembly to give Manchurian provinces separate administration, but to consider them still a part of China.

Dr. Wellington Koo, Minister to Great Britain and former Minister to the United States, to-day was appointed by President Li Yuan-hung to head a commission that will investigate China's financial condition with a view to reorganization.

LONDON, June 17.—A Hong Kong dispatch quotes Dr. Wu Ting-fang, former Chinese Minister to the United States and Foreign Minister of the Southern Chinese Government at Canton, as denying that he had been offered the Premiership of the new Central Chinese Government under President Li Yuan-hung.

Recent Peking dispatches have announced an offer of the Premiership to Dr. Wu Ting-fang by President Li, and the appointment of Dr. W. W. Yen as Acting Premier, but Dr. Yen, as denying that he would be made Premier in the event Wu Ting-fang refused the post.

RADIO SAVES FARMERS
FROM FAKE PRICE LISTSCity Buyers Have Heretofore
Had Best of Bargain.

Dutchess county farmers, thanks to wireless, now are on an equal footing with city traders who come up the Hudson River valley to buy their produce. Formerly, when trading with these speculative buyers, they had to take their sometimes doubtful words regarding current prices in the city. The State Department of Farms and Markets announced last night it was sending wireless messages to the Red Hook Grange stating the prices for fruit and vegetables had brought within an hour or two. These reports are posted on a bulletin board.

GERMAN DISCOVERS IT COST
$7,250 TO DISCOVER AMERICAColumbus's Salary Was $320, Other Two Captains $180

Amounted to $2,825, Berlin Mathematician Says.

Berlin, June 17.

So obsessed has Germany become over the supposedly fabulous value of the American dollar that F. M. Feldhaus, a mathematician, has spent the winter figuring just how much the discovery of America cost the Spanish crown.

According to his findings, which have just been published, the entire expedition led by Christopher Columbus cost just $7,250. He suggests that the most of this sum was realized from the jewels of Queen Isabella, who pawned them to provide funds.

Feldhaus, who compiled his data from parts of Columbus's diary in the old museum at Genoa, figures the salary of Admiral Columbus at $320, the pay of the captains of the other two ships $180 each, the pay of each sailor $29.25 and the equipment of the vessels for the voyage $2,825. Feldhaus does not venture into the total in present day marks expended for the discovery of America.

while ammunition cases found later also were of service pattern.

Horror is felt throughout the Newry district, and fears are entertained for to-night. The dead, except the Crozier, have been taken to the Newry morgue. Bess Brook is known as County Armagh's model village. It is near the Free State border.

Specials and Irregulars Fight.

LONDON, June 17.—A three hour fight took place last night between Ulster constabulary and Irish Republican army irregulars at Dromintree, on the Louth border, according to a Dundalk dispatch to the Central News. Numerous casualties were caused, but the details are not given. The fight followed upon an outrage on the Catholic occupants of a house in Dromintree which is alleged to have been entered by uniformed men Wednesday night.

BELFAST, June 17.—The British destroyer Vancouver has arrived in the River Foyle at Derry. It anchored last week searched a steamer in Lough Foyle, and on Friday day, halting two other vessels bound from Londonderry warned them not to stop anywhere unless so ordered by warships.

Subsequently it was reported that the Provisional Government in Dublin was contesting Great Britain's right to search ships in these waters.

IRISH VOTES ASSURE
COALITION CABINETPro-Treaty Men Will Have Big Lead in Dail.

DUBLIN, June 17 (Associated Press).—Lacking definite announcement as to the outcome of the elections for a new Dail, the results of which are not expected to be known until next Tuesday at the earliest, the estimate is hazarded in some quarters that the Republicans will have forty representatives, that the group which represents pro-treaty sentiment in the old Dail will have sixty members, while the newcomers will number twenty-eight.

If all the newcomers support the treaty, the likelihood of which has been pointed out, it would give the Free State forces a majority of forty-eight on the treaty issue. The Republicans, however, do not expect the division will follow these lines, and prefer to regard the new Parliament as likely to consist of 100 old Sinn Fein members, against twenty-eight not attached to that party organization.

They say that the coalition Cabinet, therefore, is safe against attack on any policy advanced by the combined Sinn Fein wings. The Cabinet is expected to focus its attention on administration and the Ulster problem.

The De Valera-Collins pact provides for a fresh election, if the coalition cannot carry on the new election to be based on universal adult suffrage.

It was assumed prior to the election that all Sinn Fein voters would vote the straight party ticket but doubt now is expressed that this was done. The Republicans counted on returning forty-five of their fifty-seven seats in the Dail, and both sides contemplated a diminution of party strength through the candidacy of independents.

Attention is called to one point in the transitional provisions of the new constitution which it is believed will have an influence on the future situation. Under the treaty the provisional government was to terminate within twelve months of signature of the treaty, and it was generally assumed that the Parliament which is being elected could not have more than a six months' lease of life. In the constitution text, however, it is provided that the Government and Parliament can carry on for twelve months after the constitution has been finally passed, with this important difference, that once the constitution is passed all members of the continuing Parliament must take the oath of allegiance to the King.

Eamon de Valera and his colleagues would join the Parliament now being elected, because for the present this condition does not apply, but unless, which is unlikely, they assent to the oath, their resignation must come once the constitution is passed.

De Valera, who visited Republican headquarters to-day, is believed to strongly disapprove of the constitution. It was explained to-day that the outlining his views on Monday.

HAGUE DELEGATES
BUSY IN DISCUSSIONSVan Karnebeck Occupied in Assigning Members to Commissions.

THE HAGUE, June 17 (Associated Press).—Foreign Minister Van Karnebeck, free from formal discussion by the conference on Russian affairs to-day, is holding consultations with the various delegations in order to complete the formation of the three subcommissions decided upon by the conference. The personnel of these commissions probably will be announced when the conference meets Monday afternoon.

The Belgian delegates were called to Brussels to-day by M. Jaspars, the Belgian Prime Minister, who wishes to discuss with them the general situation, especially in view of the meeting between Premiers Lloyd George and Poincare in London.

Louis A. Sussdorf, Charge d'Affaires of the American Legation, is following closely the work of the conference for the State Department, just as he would any other international event of importance. As all the countries participating in the conference hope later to obtain the cooperation of the United States, it has been decided to keep the American Charge fully informed of all conference developments.

Because of the secrecy which has thus far been enforced with respect to the Russian conference, the British and other leading delegations have invited the American newspaper representatives to join in these meetings, consequently the foreign correspondents have reliable accounts of what happens in the sessions.

The Telegram, discussing the attempt at secrecy by Holland, says: "The English delegates are showing themselves to be very liberal with regard to giving information, and the journalists may obtain news from them at conferences held at fixed times daily. The Dutch delegation, however, is close as wax."

And what about those who gather in the House of Peace, so that there may arise the sincere wish for promoting the interests of the peoples of the whole world, thus insuring the economic recovery of Europe and peace for humanity in general.

The General Syndical Committee of the Dutch Reformed Church has urged all pastors to raise prayers to God, "to His spirit seize those who gather in the House of Peace, so that there may arise the sincere wish for promoting the interests of the peoples of the whole world, thus insuring the economic recovery of Europe and peace for humanity in general."

DAVIS AND WICKERSHAM
STRESS ANGLICAN UNITYCall for Support for English
Speaking Union.

English speaking peoples must cooperate more closely because of conditions prevailing throughout the world to-day, asserted John W. Davis, former Ambassador at London, and George W. Wickersham, former Attorney-General, yesterday in calling on those who believe in such cooperation to enlist actively in the movement represented by the English Speaking Union of the United States. Their statement said:

"What the whole world is seeking today after war and destruction is the right road to peace and reconstruction. Surely one great highway is that of friendship and cooperation for humanity, between all the English speaking peoples."

"The recent Washington conference and the adoption of the resulting treaties make the present time most opportune for carrying this movement forward strongly."

Mr. Davis is president and Mr. Wickersham is chairman of the board of the union, which in the last six months increased more than 50 per cent. The union recently elected as directors A. N. Marquis of Chicago, Frederic A. Felton of Washington, Allan Forbes of Boston, Charlton Yarnall of Philadelphia and Matthew Page Andrews of Baltimore.

COOK SHOOT'S SECOND MATE.

When the steamship Dorothy from the West Indies docked at Brooklyn yesterday, T. Shimura, Japanese cook, was arrested for shooting Harry Kerest, second mate, in the shoulder in a money quarrel. Shimura was held in $25,000 by Commissioner Barnore for a hearing next Saturday.

HORSEWOMAN GETS TROPHY.

Miss Lorena Trickey, who is 22 and who does not look big enough to handle a full size horse, yesterday on the roof of the Hotel McAlpin received the Miss Alpin Trophy, a diamond studded gold and silver plaque, presented by Frank A. Ready, the hotel manager. The trophy was won in July at Cheyenne, Wyo., in the rough riding championships. Miss Trickey came here from her ranch in Oregon to receive the prize. While she is here she will make application at the Jockey Club for a jockey's license, so that during the winter months she may ride her own string of horses at Tia Juana and other race tracks.

GERMAN DEBT DROPS
16 BILLION MARKSBuying of Foreign Currency
by Industrialists Hurts Exchange.

BERLIN, June 17 (Associated Press).—Germany's floating debt on June 10 was 237,374,765,000 marks. This shows a decrease of 1,600,000,000 marks during the last ten days.

Renewed buying of foreign monies by German industrial and importing interests is given in financial circles as the reason for the new decline in value of the mark. These purchases are said to have been deferred until after the recent loan conference of bankers at Paris, in the hope that a credit would be granted.

The issue of 10,000 mark notes which the Reichsbank announced recently is declared by Georg Bernhard, financial writer of the Vossische Zeitung, to mark the beginning of the end in German finances. He points out that the decline in Austrian exchange began with the production of 10,000 kronen notes and declares such procedure has a disastrous psychological effect.

The new issue means that the 1,600 mark note henceforth will be destroyed as a commercial unit and will be replaced in future transactions by the 10,000 mark note, according to the writer, who declares: "The new super-note is nothing more than manufactured goods and itself mutely proclaims: 'I too am worth nothing.'"

WOMAN POSTMASTER
TO BE APPREHENDEDWarrant Signed for Miss
Vealey of Westwood.

Arrest of Miss Mary Vealey, assistant postmaster at Westwood, N. J., was ordered yesterday on warrant after complaint before the United States Commissioner, Mr. Hendrickson, in Jersey City. Miss Vealey was suspended on Thursday following the investigation by two Federal agents who visited the Westwood post office and "planted" some marked money in envelopes. Miss Vealey is at her home suffering a nervous breakdown as a result of her suspension.

The young woman had been connected with the office about a year. Her salary was $1,500 a year. When asked concerning an automobile she bought two weeks ago, she said it was a second hand car and she had made only one payment on it.

"LEXINGTON" EXCHANGE OPEN.

New York city's 107th telephone central office, "Lexington," was placed in service last night by the New York Telephone Company at 227 East Thirtieth street. More than 3,000 telephone lines in the districts south and west of Madison Square previously served by the Longacre, Ashland, Madison Square, Gramercy and Stuyvesant central offices were transferred to the new exchange.
